

The VMQG's mission is to:

- Develop and encourage the art of modern quilting
- Work with other guilds and groups with a similar purpose
- Encourage new quilters in the aesthetic of modern quilting
- Offer educational opportunities through classes, workshops and sharing of information
- Support and provide opportunity for charity or other works that provide back to the community through the use of modern quilting skills